

Introduction to Web Technologies Coursework Proposal

| | |
|----------------|--------------|
| Student Name: | Amrit Dhakal |
| Student ID No: | NP03S200047 |

Proposed Name of Web Site

www.brownbeans.com

Description of the Web Site

Brown Beans is a web application of Brown Beans Coffee Pvt. Ltd. where any users can know about our coffee producing process and they can also buy organic coffee beans through this application. Latest news regarding our coffee is updated here and user can contact us via this application. User can also have a virtual tour of our farm. From this website, a user can share their experience with us as a “review”.

Pages of your Web Site

| Page Name | Description |
|------------------------------|---|
| index.html | This is the home page of this web application which contains logo, navigation bar, some images slides and basic info regarding Brown beans coffee, and footer. |
| About.html | It contains the specific collection of information such as license of the firm, short text content regarding who we are and many more. It also contains some article and blogs. |
| Contact.html | It contains a Google map including the location of the company, contact numbers and a form to fill up where user can send their inquiries directly to the board. |
| Profile.html | It contains images related to the company. |
| Growing and Processing .html | It contains growing, purifying, and packaging process of the coffee beans of the company. |
| Store.html | Products which are for sell are displayed here and user can order their products. |